

Compu-Quote's Brian Schwab: "No broker should be without TravelRater™ on their Website, just as they wouldn't be without an online tool for home and auto insurance."

TravelRater™

Online Quoting Tool Highlights

No E&O Exposure

With TravelRater, customers are responsible for completing the application.

So there is no E&O exposure to brokers.

Ten minutes on TravelRater could mean the difference between a $60 policy and a $60,000 hospital bill for consumers.

Easy

TravelRater is a simple interface that's easy to add to your brokerage Website.

Travel Insurance is instantly available - be the trusted advisor and use technology proven to increase business and add value to your website.

Choose a standard link to receive this great tool at no cost to you or choose the customized option enabling the tool to take on the look of the brokerage website as well as stat reports.

Paperwork and overhead costs are virtually eliminated.

Trusted

TravelRater was built by Compu-Quote Inc, similar to ezLeads Plus , but allows customers to buy online.

Clients can be directed to the brokers website for multiple product offerings.

Seamless enrollment, fulfillment, emergency assistance and claims.

Add TravelRater to your Website, then sit back and wait for your commission cheques to roll in.
